SHOOTING REVIEW SUMMARY

INCIDENT: On Duty Hit Shooting (suspect deceased)

DATE/TIME: December 17, 2016, 0116 hours

IAB #: SH 2418104

URN #: 016-18603-0284-013

LOCATION: [redacted] South La Verne Avenue, Los Angeles, 90022

SYNOPSIS:

On December 17, 2016, an Internal Affairs Bureau (IAB) Force and Shooting Rollout Team, comprised of Lieutenant Justin Diez, and Sergeants Scott Chapman and Jeff Smith, responded to East Los Angeles (ELA) Station area. The response was regarding a hit shooting, involving Deputies Danny Galvez and Miguel Ortiz, assigned to ELA Sheriff's Station.

IAB Lieutenant Justin Diez verified the ELA Station Watch Commander, Lieutenant Alejandro Salinas, #[redacted] took reasonable steps to ensure the involved personnel and witness personnel did not discuss the incident among themselves or with uninvolved persons prior to being interviewed by the assigned investigators. Lieutenant Diez also ensured Lieutenant Salinas knew the involved personnel and witness personnel, should not collectively consult with their representative. Additionally, IAB Lieutenant Diez confirmed Lieutenant Salinas attempted to have the involved and witness personnel gather in the company of a supervisor until they provided a statement to the assigned investigators.

Homicide Bureau Detectives Eric Arias, #[redacted] and Philip Guzman, #[redacted] conducted the shooting investigation and prepared a Homicide Bureau casebook [Exhibit A]. The shooting was reviewed by the Justice System Integrity Division (JSID), of the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office. Deputy District Attorney Shannon Presby submitted a memorandum [Exhibit B] of their investigation. The JSID memorandum, dated July 27, 2018, stated Deputies Galvez, and Ortiz acted lawfully in self-defense, when they used deadly force.

SUMMARY:

On December 17, 2016, at 0109 hours, ELA Station deputies responded with emergency lights and sirens (Code-3) to [redacted] unincorporated Los Angeles , regarding an assault with a deadly weapon, gunshot victim, call for service, ELA Incident #16352-0027, (ELA tag #27) [Miscellaneous Documents]. The call stated someone was shot at the location. Los Angeles County Fire Department was also dispatched at the time of the call.

> IAB Note: The Los Angeles County Fire Department and California Highway Patrol, received the initial call from a female, via the "911" system. The caller stated there was a gunshot victim at the location. The limited information was subsequently relayed to ELA Sheriff's Station.

The location was a single family home located at [redacted] There were two houses on the property. Both houses had detached garages, which were converted into living areas. The incident location was the second, or back house on the property [Exhibit A: Pages 33 and 73].

Unit 24, Deputies Jose Aceituno and Jordan Hempstead, arrived on scene first and contacted a female (Witness [redacted]), who told them there was a gunshot victim inside the house. Deputy Hempstead escorted the female towards the street and detained her, while Deputy Aceituno remained near the house.

Unit 23, Deputies Argelia Huerta and Luis Lezama, arrived on scene. Deputy Huerta observed several witnesses (Witnesses [redacted] [redacted] and [redacted]) near the driveway. The witnesses were detained in the back seat of multiple patrol cars.
Deputy Huerta assisted with the detention, while Deputy Lezama went towards the house.

Unit 21, Deputies David Casas and Miguel Ortiz arrived on scene. Deputy Casas assisted with the detention of the witnesses, while Deputy Ortiz remained near the house.

Unit 23A, Deputies Danny Galvez and [redacted] arrived on scene. Deputy [redacted] assisted with the detention of the witnesses, while Deputy Galvez remained near the house.

The deputies on scene stated they had exigency to make entry into the house, based on the witness statement of a gunshot victim being inside the location. Deputies Ortiz, Galvez, Aceituno, and Lezama formulated a tactical plan, which involved; designated lethal force, less lethal force, a contact team, and radio communications. A rally point was also established. Deputies Galvez and Ortiz made several announcements;

"Sheriff's Department," at the doorway of the home.

Deputy Galvez utilized his radio to broadcast they were making entry into [redacted] The team of deputies cleared the house room by room, utilizing their Department issued flashlights attached to their handguns to illuminate the dimly lit interior. While clearing the house, the deputies heard a loud thump coming from the rear of the house, which startled them. Deputies Galvez and Ortiz approached the last door at the end of the narrow hallway.

IAB Note: The crime scene diagram depicted the hallway to be 2'10" wide [Exhibit A: Page 33].

Deputies Galvez and Ortiz positioned themselves on either side of the bedroom doorway and observed a male Hispanic (Suspect Barrios), sitting in a chair in the northeast corner of the bedroom. Suspect Barrios had blood on his face, hands, and body. Both deputies could not identify the source of the blood.

IAB Note: It was later determined, Suspect Barrios was shot in the head by an unknown person, and was the gunshot victim identified in the call for service, ELA tag #27 [Miscellaneous Documents].

Deputies Galvez and Ortiz immediately observed a shotgun at Suspect Barrio's feet. The barrel of the shotgun was pointed towards the doorway and the deputies. The butt of the shotgun was near Suspect Barrios's feet. Deputy Ortiz immediately broadcast via the duplex patch they were detaining a male armed with a gun, at gunpoint.

IAB Note: The duplex patch is a direct frequency radio channel used to broadcast immediate, and oftentimes emergent radio traffic. The patch remained open for the duration of the incident.

Suspect Barrios leaned forward towards the shotgun several times. Deputies Galvez and Ortiz both gave numerous verbal commands to Suspect Barrios to lean back and keep his hands to his side. Suspect Barrios looked towards them and rocked back and forth several times, while reaching towards the shotgun. Deputy Galvez believed Suspect Barrios was testing them to see how far he could go before they reacted. Suspect Barrios then made a deliberate motion with his open hand towards the trigger guard of the shotgun. Deputy Galvez believed this movement was "less hesitant," and believed Suspect Barrios was committed to grabbing the shotgun.

Fearing for their safety, and believing Suspect Barrios was reaching for the shotgun to shoot at them, Deputies Galvez and Ortiz simultaneously fired five rounds each from their duty weapons, at Suspect Barrios. Deputies Galvez and Ortiz were approximately eight to ten feet from Suspect Barrios when they fired their handguns.

IAB Note: The crime scene diagram depicted the room to be 9'8" by 10'5" in size [Exhibit A: Page 33].

Suspect Barrios fell forward to the floor and landed on top of the shotgun. Suspect Barrios' hands were underneath him, and he was still moving. Deputy Aceituno broadcasted over the duplex patch that a deputy involved shooting had just occurred. Deputies Aceituno and Lezama relieved Deputies Ortiz and Galvez from their position at the doorway. They held the Suspect Barrios at gunpoint until additional units and the field sergeant arrived.

After the deputy involved shooting occurred, two additional witnesses exited the rear detached garage ([redacted] and [redacted]). They were detained in the driveway by Deputies Huerta and Hempstead, who were responding back to the house to assist after hearing the emergent radio traffic.

Field Sergeant Michael Rose (Unit 20S), Deputy [redacted], and Deputy Casas entered the house. Sergeant Rose observed Deputies Aceituno and Lezama near the rear bedroom doorway, with their weapons pointed at Suspect Barrios. Sergeant Rose directed Deputies Aceituno and Lezama to provide cover for Deputy [redacted] sohe could remove the shotgun from underneath Suspect Barrios. Deputy [redacted] removed the shotgun and placed it against the wall nearest the left side of the doorframe. Sergeant Rose directed Deputy Casas to put on latex gloves and render first aid to Suspect Barrios. Deputy Casas checked Suspect Barrios for any additional weapons, and applied pressure to the Suspect Barrios' wounds.

Shortly thereafter, Los Angeles County Fire Department personnel, from Engine #22, under the direction of Captain Dougherty, arrived and rendered aid to Suspect Barrios.

IAB Note: Fire department personnel were previously staged near the location, in response to the original call service.

Suspect Barrios was transported to Los Angeles County+USC Medical Center by Care Ambulance, #1818. Suspect Barrios was treated by Doctor Marvil, under patient #100877134, and was pronounced dead at 0204 hours.

IAB Note: During the deputy interviews, IAB investigators used the scene diagram, scene photographs, and Google Earth images, to depict positions of the involved personnel, or refresh their recollection of the location. These documents are included as exhibits.

INVOLVED EMPLOYEE STATEMENTS:

Deputy Miguel Ortiz was interviewed by Homicide Bureau Detectives Arias, and Guzman, on December 17, 2016, at 0754 hours. Deputy Ortiz was re-interviewed by IAB investigators on April 30, 2019, at 1425 hours. Deputy Ortiz stated he and Deputy Aceituno stood near the doorway to the house and made several announcements for anyone inside the house to come out. A female exited the house and stated someone inside the back bedroom was shot. Deputy Ortiz asked the female if there were any suspects or weapons inside the home. The female stated, "no," to both questions [IAB Transcripts: Page 5]. He also asked the female what the address was, and relayed the information to the other deputies. Deputy Ortiz stated there was exigency to enter the house, due to a gunshot victim being inside [Homicide Transcripts: Page 5].

Deputy Ortiz remembered hearing radio traffic that the field sergeant was responding to the scene. He felt, if he waited to enter the house, the gunshot victim might die. Deputy Ortiz' mindset was, there were no suspect's or weapons in the house, and he needed to render aid to the gunshot victim [IAB Transcripts: Page 15].

Deputy Ortiz heard his partners develop a tactical plan to make entry into the house. He was assigned radio communications, and Taser. Deputy Ortiz stated their main focus was to enter the house to render aid to the gunshot victim [IAB Transcripts: Page 6]. The team of deputies made entry and began clearing the house, room by room. At some point, Deputy Ortiz heard a loud thump coming from the rear of the house. Deputies Ortiz and Galvez eventually reached the last bedroom and saw Suspect Barrios. Suspect Barrios was seated in a chair, with a shotgun on the floor near his feet. The barrel was pointed directly at the doorway, and at them.

He and Deputy Galvez gave Suspect Barrios numerous verbal commands to lean back, and not to reach forward [IAB Transcripts: Page 11]. He said Suspect Barrios kept rocking forward and reaching his hands towards his groin area. Deputy Ortiz then activated the duplex "Patch," and state he was detaining armed suspect at gunpoint.

Deputy Ortiz said Suspect Barrios was staring into his eyes, and it appeared he comprehended what they were telling him. After making this rocking motion several times, Suspect Barrios reached down with his open palm towards the trigger guard [IAB Transcripts: Page 13]. Deputy Ortiz feared for his and his partner's life, and he fired his duty weapon at Suspect Barrios. He stated his backdrop was the bedroom wall, and he was aiming for the center of Suspect Barrios' torso.

IAB Note: A scene diagram was used during Deputy Ortiz' interview. Deputy Ortiz identified where he was standing when he saw Suspect Barrios inside the bedroom. Deputy Ortiz drew an "X" on the diagram, near the doorway of the bedroom, to indicate where he was standing and an "X" in the corner of the bedroom to indicate where Suspect Barrios was positioned [Exhibit C].

Deputy Danny Galvez was interviewed by Homicide Bureau Detectives Guzman, and Arias, on December 17, 2016, at 0636 hours. Deputy Galvez was re-interviewed by IAB investigators on May 6, 2019, at 1029 hours. Deputy Galvez stated he responded to the call for service, and was briefed by Deputy Ortiz once he arrived. Deputy Galvez was at the doorway, focused on looking into the house, when he overheard a female tell Deputy Ortiz there were no weapons in the house [Homicide Transcripts: Page 8]. Deputy Galvez stated people were exiting the house screaming, and in a panic state [Homicide Transcripts: Page 7]. Deputy Galvez was assigned with the lethal force option, as part of the entry team's tactical plan.

Deputy Galvez broadcast over his radio they were making entry into the home. They cleared the location, room by room, to search for additional victims, and any armed suspects [Homicide Transcripts: Page 9]. Deputy Galvez stated they located Suspect Barrios seated in a chair in the last bedroom. Suspect Barrios was leaning forward towards a shotgun that was on the floor near his feet. Deputy Ortiz told Suspect Barrios to lean back, to keep him away from the shotgun. Deputy Galvan believed Suspect Barrios was receptive to their commands, because every time Suspect Barrios leaned forward, and they would tell him to lean back, and he complied [IAB Transcripts: Page 11]. Deputy Galvez believed the suspect was "testing" them each time he reached for the shotgun. Suspect Barrios then reached for the trigger guard with an open hand, but this time, he appeared more assertive [IAB Transcripts: Page 12]. Deputy Galvez believed Suspect Barrios would shoot them if he reached the shotgun. [Homicide Transcripts: Page 14]. Deputy Galvez fired his duty weapon four to five times at Suspect Barrios. His backdrop was the bedroom wall, and he was aiming for Suspect Barrios' chest, and upper torso. Deputy Galvez stopped firing after Suspect Barrios fell forward and the threat was over.

SWORN WITNESS STATEMENTS:

Deputy Luis Lezama was interviewed by Homicide Bureau Detectives Arias, and Guzman, on December 17, 2016, at 0710 hours. Deputy Lezama was re-interviewed by IAB investigators on April 23, 2019, at 0610 hours. Deputy Lezama arrived at the location and saw several deputies detaining several people on the street near the patrol cars. A tactical plan was developed to enter the house for the preservation of life [IAB Transcripts: Page 4]. He and his partners (Aceituno, Galvez, and Ortiz) started to clear each room, and eventually Deputies Galvez and Ortiz reached the last room in the hallway. Deputy Lezama stated the deputies gave numerous verbal commands for Suspect Barrios not to move, and then he heard six to seven gunshots.

Deputy Lezama could not see into the bedroom beyond Deputies Ortiz and Galvez, and he did not know who had fired [IAB Transcripts: Page 7]. After the shooting, Deputy Lezama heard a loud commotion coming from inside the kitchen. He heard a door open, and then heard deputies outside, ordering people to lay on the ground. He and Deputy Aceituno took positions at the bedroom doorway, and Deputies Galvez and Ortiz went into the kitchen. He saw Suspect Barrios lying on a shotgun with the barrel pointed towards the doorway. Deputy Lezama stated Suspect Barrios was still moving. He gave Suspect Barrios numerous verbal orders not to move. Sergeant Rose and additional deputies approached him. They came up with a plan to disarm Suspect Barrios and render him aid [IAB Transcripts: Page 9].

The house was completely dark, and nobody was contacting them. At some point, a female "nonchalantly" walked toward them and said someone inside the house was shot [IAB Transcripts: Page 5]. Additional patrol units arrived and they made a tactical plan to enter the house. Deputy Aceituno was designated to handle radio communications. After several announcements, a male and female ran out of the house towards them [IAB Transcripts: Page 8]. Deputy Aceituno asked them if anyone else was inside the house, and they stated, "Somebody's shot."

While tactically clearing the house, Deputy Aceituno heard a loud bang, which scared him. He cleared a room and looked down the hallway to the last bedroom, where he saw Deputies Ortiz and Galvez with their guns pointed into the bedroom. Deputy Aceituno heard the deputies yelling commands, "Don't move, let me see your hands," to someone in the bedroom. Deputy Aceituno covered the kitchen doorway, which had not yet been cleared, and heard five to seven gunshots. Deputy Aceituno put out emergent radio traffic advising of the deputy involved shooting [IAB Transcripts: Page 12].

Deputy Aceituno stated Deputies Galvez and Ortiz were still giving verbal orders to Suspect Barrios while pointing their guns at him. He and Deputy Lezama moved forward and asked Deputies Galvez and Ortiz if they were ok. He and Deputy Lezama took Deputies Ortiz' and Galvez' position at the doorway and pointing their guns at Suspect Barrios. Deputy Aceituno stated Suspect Barrios was lying on top of a shotgun, and he was moving around [IAB Transcripts: Pages 13 and 14]. He gave Suspect Barrios verbal commands not to move, and then Sergeant Rose and other deputies came up behind them. The additional deputies entered the room, secured the shotgun, and rendered first aid to Suspect Barrios.

Deputy Casas said at some point Sergeant Rose arrived, he entered the house, and they formulated a plan to disarm Suspect Barrios, who was lying on top of a shotgun [IAB Transcripts: Page 7]. Deputy Casas was tasked with checking Suspect Barrios for additional weapons and rendering him aid. He used a towel, or a blanket, to apply pressure to Suspect Barrios' wounds [IAB Transcripts: Page 8].

> IAB Note: A scene diagram was used during Deputy Casas' interview. Deputy Casas marked an "X' on the diagram depicting the location of the shotgun [Exhibit D].

At some point, he contacted a female, who stated someone was shot inside the home [IAB Transcripts: Pages 3 and 4]. Deputy Hempstead stated other deputies arrived and they came up with a plan to enter the home. After several announcements were made at the doorway, a male and female exited the house. Deputy Hempstead detained them and walked them back to the patrol cars. After he secured the male and female, he went back to the house, where the team of deputies had already made entry into the narrow hallway. He took a containment position on the northeast corner of the house, so the

IAB Note: “Flanked” is a commonly used military term that means to attack on one side.

Deputy Hempstead heard Deputy Ortiz giving several verbal commands to someone inside the house, and then he heard Deputy Aceituno broadcast emergent radio traffic over the duplex patch. He was directed inside the house and saw deputies detaining someone at the end of the hallway. Sergeant Rose ascertained if all the deputies were ok, then went back outside.
